Case No. 5:15-cv-01824-BLF
JOINT STATUS REPORT REGARDING COLLECTIVE ACTION SETTLEMENT

Defendant Google LLC ("Google"), Plaintiff Cheryl Fillekes and the Opt-in Plaintiffs (the "Collective Action Plaintiffs") submit this joint Status Report Regarding Collective Action Settlement.

On October 5, 2018, the Parties reached a settlement in principle with the assistance of Magistrate Judge Ryu, after participating in a full-day Settlement Conference on October 2, 2018, and a further telephonic Settlement Conference on October 5, 2018. The Parties agreed to use best efforts to seek court approval within 60 to 90 days. ECF 393.

The Parties have been working to prepare the long-form Settlement Agreement and its exhibits, but the process has taken longer than expected. The Parties remain committed to the settlement.

This is not a Rule 23 class action that involves preliminary approval, a notice period, and then final approval. Rather, this is a collective action under section 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), in which each Collective Action Plaintiff has already received notice, joined the action as a party plaintiff by filing a Consent to Join form, and designated Collective Counsel (Kotchen & Low LLP) as counsel in this action. Accordingly, the Parties are planning to distribute the long-form Settlement Agreement to the Collective Action Plaintiffs, procure signatures from those Collective Action Plaintiffs who wish to participate in the settlement, and then file settlement-approval papers with the Court. The Parties expect to complete and execute the Settlement Agreement and then file a motion for approval of the Collective Settlement, after giving Collective Action Plaintiffs adequate time to review the Settlement Agreement and decide whether to participate in the settlement. The Parties will inform the Court once they have executed the Settlement Agreement.
